

PROPOSITION C: Animal Shelter Expansion

City of Georgetown 2023 Bond Election

The City of Georgetown has called a Nov. 7 election for a bond package that would fund new and expanded customer services, animal sheltering, and recreation facilities. Voters will see four separate propositions on the ballot.

No Expected Change to the City's Tax Rate

All proposed projects are expected to be funded within the City's current tax rate.

Proposition C: Animal Shelter Expansion ($15 million)

Proposition C would fund an expansion of the City's animal sheltering capacity. Flexible funding would enable the City to either:

- 1) Enter into a partnership with other local governments to expand the Williamson County Regional Animal Shelter (WCRAS), or
- 2) Expand the City of Georgetown Animal Shelter

Lower Long-Term Operating Costs

The City would prioritize partnering with the WCRAS, which is located within Georgetown's city limits. The partnership would enable the City to share operating expenses with the County and four other participating municipalities – lowering long-term costs to the City while still expanding sheltering capacity, improving conditions for animals, and offering residents convenient access to a no-kill shelter.

If the partnership moves forward, the bond funds would be used to expand the WCRAS facility. If for any reason the partnership does not move forward, the bond funds would be used to expand the City's shelter or build a new one.
